OF
ST. MARGARET'S, WESTMINSTER PARISH

PREAMBLE

These Bylaws are adopted pursuant to the authority granted by the Annotated Code of Maryland (1985 Replacement Volume), Corporations and Associations Article, 5-334, relating to religious corporations affiliated with the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Maryland. These Bylaws shall govern the corporate and temporal affairs of St. Margaret's, Westminster Parish, subject to the laws of the State of Maryland, the Constitution & Canons for the Government of The Episcopal Church (the national Church), and to those of the Diocese of Maryland.

ARTICLE I

MEMBERS; MEETINGS

Section 1. Ordinary Members. All persons who have been baptized, whether in the Episcopal Church or in another Christian Church, and whose Baptisms have been duly recorded in the Episcopal Church, and who regard St. Margaret's, Westminster Parish (the "Church") as their regular place of worship, shall be Ordinary Members of the Church.

Section 2. Voting Members. Every person not less than 16 years of age who has been an Ordinary Member of the Church for at least three months preceding the day when the person may wish to vote, and who shall have been, for the period aforesaid, a communicant in good standing in the Episcopal Church and enrolled as such in the records of the Church, shall be a Voting Member thereof, with the right to vote in the election of Vestry members and upon all other matters having to do with the affairs of the Church. A communicant in good standing means a member of the Church over the age of 16 years who has received Holy Communion in the Church at least three times in the preceding year, and who for the preceding year has been faithful in corporate worship, unless for good cause prevented, and has been faithful in working, praying and giving for the spread of the Kingdom of God.

The Rector (or the Curate or Associate Rector, if there be one, and in the Rector's absence) shall maintain a current list of communicants in good standing, determined in the Rector's best judgment according to the Canons of the Episcopal Church. In the event of any dispute as to eligibility of any voter, the question shall be referred to the Vestry for resolution. If the determination by the Vestry is not satisfactory to the objecting party or group, and if the differences cannot be resolved after consultation with the Bishop of the Diocese, the matter shall be referred to a panel of three arbitrators, communicants in good standing of one or more other parishes or congregations in the Diocese of Maryland, one of whom shall be named by the objecting party or group, one by the Vestry and the third by the two arbitrators so named. The decision of such panel shall be binding on all parties.

Section 3. Annual Meetings. There shall be an annual meeting of the Voting Members of the Church at which all Ordinary Members shall be welcome but shall have no vote, on the third Sunday of each January, or as soon thereafter as the Vestry shall determine. The business to be transacted at the annual meeting of Voting Members shall include the election of Vestry members, consideration and action upon reports of the Rector, Officers, Vestry members, Commissions and ad hoc committees, and any other business within the power of the Church as a religious corporation of the State of Maryland.

Section 4. Special Meetings. At any time during the interval between annual meetings, special meetings of the Voting Members, at which all Ordinary Members shall also be welcome, may be called by the Rector or by not less than one-third of the members of the Vestry, or upon the written request of not less than twelve voting members filed with the Rector or with the Senior Warden.

Section 5. Notice and Place of Meetings. All meetings of members, both annual and special, shall be held at the Parish House (or for good reason, in the Church nave) at the time specified in the notice. Notice of all meetings shall be given by announcement at services in the Church on at least two Sundays immediately preceding the date of the meeting, and by publication in the weekly bulletin of the Church, in not less than two issues preceding the meeting. Such notice shall indicate whether the meeting is an annual meeting or a special meeting, and if a special meeting, the business to be transacted. No business other than that specified in the notice shall be transacted at special meetings.

ARTICLE II

THE VESTRY

Section 1. Eligibility. Every Voting Member of the Church, as defined in Section 2, Article 1 shall be eligible to serve as a Vestry member.

Section 2. Number and Term of Office. The Vestry of the Church shall consist of the Rector and twelve lay members chosen from among the Voting Members and two additional Voting Members between the ages of 16 and 22, who will be young adult members of the Vestry. The Rector shall have only a casting vote in the event of a tie. Of the twelve lay members, four shall be elected each year and shall serve three-year terms. Young adult members of the vestry shall be elected for a term of three years. A lay member or young adult member shall take office as Vestry member immediately upon election. No lay member shall be eligible for renomination and re-election to the Vestry for a period of one year after the member's term expired; provided, however, that prior service on the Vestry in filling a vacancy shall not be disqualification for re-election.

Section 3. Nomination. Voting Members shall be nominated to serve as Vestry members in the following manner:

At least three months in advance of each annual meeting, the Rector (or in the Rector's absence, or if the cure be vacant, the Senior Warden) shall appoint a Nominating Committee consisting of five Voting Members, not more than one of whom shall be a member of the existing Vestry. As set forth in Section 2 of this Article, the nominating Committee shall nominate two or more young adult Vestry members, between the ages of 16 and 22 who will be young adult members of the Vestry. The Nominating Committee shall nominate at least as many Voting Members as there shall be vacancies to be filled at the annual meeting. Nothing in Section 2 is intended to limit the Nominating Committee from nominating any Voting Member to serve as a member of the Vestry. The Nominating Committee shall submit to the Vestry the names of those persons so nominated at least one month prior to the annual meeting, and the Vestry shall immediately make known to the congregation by publication in the Church bulletin and such other means deemed appropriate, the names of those so nominated.

Any Voting Member may nominate a candidate or candidates for the office of Vestry member by submitting such nomination or nominations, over the Voting Member's signature, to the Registrar at least two weeks prior to the annual meeting. The Vestry shall immediately make known to the congregation by publication in the Church bulletin, or by such other means as the Vestry may deem appropriate, the names of any such additional nominees. A Voting Member may be nominated from the floor at the time of the election. No person's name shall be placed in nomination without the prior consent of the person.

Section 4. Election. Vestry members shall be elected at the annual meeting by the Voting Members present and voting thereat. Voting by proxy shall not be permitted. Those receiving the highest number of votes for the vacancies to be filled shall be deemed elected. If there be a tie vote for the last of the vacancies, the tie shall be resolved by another ballot for the tied candidates; if there is then another tie, it shall be resolved by lot. Young adult members of the Vestry are elected by a separate vote at the annual meeting by the Voting Members there. All the procedures set out in this Section shall apply to the election of the young adult members of the Vestry.

Section 5. Vacancies. If by reason of death, resignation or any other cause a vacancy shall occur in the Vestry, the remaining Vestry members may, by a majority vote of those present at a duly constituted meeting, elect an eligible person to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term thereof. In the discretion of the Vestry, any such vacancy may also be filled by nomination and election by the Voting Members at any annual meeting, in which case the person so elected shall serve the unexpired term and shall be eligible for nomination and re-election at the end of such unexpired term.

Section 6. Duties and Powers. The Vestry shall act as trustees for the Church in accordance with the laws of the State of Maryland regulating religious corporations

Notice of the time and place of all regular and special meetings and of the purpose of all special meetings shall be given to each Vestry member in person or by telephone not less than twenty-four hours preceding the meeting, or by mail posted not less than three days preceding the date of such meeting. No business shall be transacted at special meetings except that specified in the notice; provided, however, if all twelve Vestry members are present and unanimously agree to consider other business, they may do so. All regular meetings, and when possible special meetings of the Vestry, shall be announced in the weekly bulletin and open to any person wishing to attend; provided, however, the Vestry may by two-thirds vote of those present, meet in closed session to conduct business considered to be of a sensitive nature not appropriate for open discussion.

Section 8. Quorum and Presiding Officer. Seven lay Vestry members and the Rector, if present, or eight lay Vestry members if the Rector be not present, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Vestry. Officers who are not members of the Vestry shall not be counted for purposes of determining a quorum. The Rector shall preside at all meetings of the Vestry at which the Rector is present.
