He started playing guitar when he was 11 and has been singing, writing, and recording music ever since. He credits his musical upbringing to the sacred music he grew up listening to in church and his dad introducing him to The Beatles when he was 9. We are equally thrilled to welcome the Rev. Darryl Kemp as our liturgical and program intern for this coming year. Mr. Kemp obtained his Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology at Howard University in 2012. Six years later, he earned his Masters of Divinity at the Samuel

Dewitt Proctor School of Theology at Virginia Union University. Also in 2018, he was ordained into the Anglican Communion through the Anglican Church of Tanzania. Mr. Kemp is a fellow of Princeton Theological Seminary: Black Theology and Leadership Institute (2016). Additionally, he successfully completed the Chaplain Basic Officer Leaders Course at the United States Army Chaplain School in Fort Jackson, SC (2016). Currently, he is a Doctor of Ministry student at United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. Kemp is spending a program year at St. Margaret's in preparation for what will be his fourth ordination, this time in the Episcopal Church. He will be with us on Sundays, preaching and serving in a lay capacity until he is ordained a deacon, hopefully this coming winter.
