LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST LESSON

Exodus 3:1-15

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, "I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up." When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." Then he said, "Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." He said further, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the Lord said, "I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt." But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" He said, "I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain." But Moses said to God, "If I come to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?"

God said to Moses, "I am who I am." He said further, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'I am has sent me to you.'" God also said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'The Lord, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you': This is my name forever, and this my title for all generations."

Reader           The Word of the Lord.
People           Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL       (read responsively by whole verse)

Psalm 63:1-8

- 1 O God, you are my God; eagerly I seek you; *
my soul thirsts for you, my flesh faints for you,
as in a barren and dry land where there is no water.
- 2 Therefore I have gazed upon you in your holy place, ***
that I might behold your power and your glory.
- 3 For your loving-kindness is better than life itself; *
my lips shall give you praise.
- 4 So will I bless you as long as I live ***
and lift up my hands in your Name.
- 5 My soul is content, as with marrow and fatness, *
and my mouth praises you with joyful lips,
- 6 When I remember you upon my bed, ***
and meditate on you in the night watches.
- 7 For you have been my helper, *
and under the shadow of your wings I will rejoice.
- 8 My soul clings to you; ***
your right hand holds me fast.

SECOND LESSON

1 Corinthians 10:1-13

A reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians.

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, and they were struck down in the wilderness.

Now these things occurred as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not become idolaters as some of them did; as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and they rose up to play." We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by serpents. And do not complain as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroyer. These things happened to them to serve as an example, and they were written down to instruct us, on whom the ends of the ages have come. So if you think you are standing, watch out that you do not fall. No testing has overtaken you that is not common to everyone. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tested beyond your strength, but with the testing he will also provide the way out so that you may be able to endure it.

Reader           The Word of the Lord.
People           Thanks be to God.

The People stand as they are able and sing the Hymn.

Children's Chapel begins here at the 9 a.m. service for children from ages three to second grade. Children leave the nave during this sequence hymn following behind the cross which will come down the aisle and then go into the downstairs Annex classroom with the children rejoining their parents at The Peace.

GOSEL

Luke 13:1-9

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

At that very time there were some present who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. He asked them, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them--do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did." Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. So he said to the gardener, 'See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?' He replied, 'Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig around it and put manure on it. If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"

SERMON

The Rev. Patti Sachs

A moment of silence is kept after the Sermon.

The People stand as they are able.

A CELTIC CREED

Celebrant Let us say together a Celtic Creed.

Celebrant and People

Our God is the God of all humans,
The God of heaven and earth
The God of sea and rivers,
The God of the sun and moon and all heavenly bodies,
The God of the lofty mountains and the lowly valleys.
God is above the heavens,
and he is beneath the heavens.
He inspires all things,
gives life to all things.
He stands above all things,
and beneath all things.
He enlightens the day with the light to the sun,
he strengthens the night with the light of moon and stars,
he makes wells in the arid lands and dry islands in the sea.
He has a Son who is co-eternal with himself;
and similar in all respects to himself;
and neither is the Son younger than the Father, nor is the Father older than the Son;
and the Holy Spirit breathes in them.
And the Father and the Son and Holy Spirit are inseparable. Amen.

and is careless of its natural laws!
Lord, in your compassion,

People come near to heal and to bless.

Leader We pray for the children who are abandoned or lost,
without families and without love,
for those who live in the streets,
for those who live in institutions,
for all children everywhere who are abused, frightened, or alone.
Lord, in your compassion,

People come near to heal and to bless.

Celebrant Almighty God, we ask you to grant our petitions. Look favorably on your Church; that it may carry out the work of the salvation of humankind. The Bloom of the Rose

A. Todd

*Oh my sons and my daughters come dance with our Saviour And he will enfold you in true love restored
While a world in its riches pulls at my spirit The beauty He gives us will ever be more
In love just beginning, and life at its ending Is written the hope for a future he knows
For we are just passing, like wind on the heather To dance with our Saviour, the bloom of the rose
For the blood that was spilled centuries ago Brought forth a rose still the fairest of all
With each new day, it's fragrance still grows And with each new day, it's fragrance still grows
Innocent young Mary, the new mother weeping For the child she knew someday must die for all man
All mothers and fathers must yield from their keeping Tender young hearts to a future he plans
From death he has triumphed, to grace we surrender The bonds we can make in humanity
In divine light you dotted the heavens with splendor And reached 'cross the ages to brighten my soul
You brought forth the flowers, in fields they awaken To all that beholds you, sweet blessing flows
With each new sunrise, a heart will be taken To dance with our Saviour, the bloom of the rose.
For the blood that was spilled centuries ago Brought forth a rose still the fairest of all
With each new day, it's fragrance still grows And with each new day, it's fragrance still grows.*

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, God Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Great Creator Spirit, from whom all life comes forth, here we gather again with bread and with wine, seeking your presence, longing once more to be nourished.

People

We hunger for wholeness in our lives,
for unity on earth and for peace among the nations.
And we know that only in your love can such peace and unity be found.
And so with all that we are and all that we can give,
we join with all of creation as we sing your praises:

SANCTUS

Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Ho - san - - na in the high - - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

The Celebrant continues

The earth is full of your glory, O Lord, and for the earth we give you thanks and ask your blessing. Even as this broken bread was once scattered over the hills and mountains, and when gathered together, became one, so may Your Church be gathered together from the ends of the earth into Your kingdom.

We remember Jesus, who on the night before he suffered, took bread and, lifting it up and giving thanks to you, he blessed it, broke it and gave it to his friends, saying: "Take and eat this, for this is my body which is given for you."

Then he took the cup, blessed the wine and gave it to them, saying: "Take and drink this, for this cup is my blood, which shall be shed for the forgiveness of all. Whenever you do these things, you shall remember me."

Blessed are You, Lord, God of all creation. Through Your goodness we have this bread and wine to offer, fruits of the earth and work of human hands. In memory of Jesus, we your children offer to you these gifts. We call on your Holy Spirit now to bless them - the holy bread of life and the cup of eternal blessing.

Accept with them the sacrifice of our hearts that all who share in this bread and this cup may be blessed in your love. We pray this in the name of Jesus, your Son.

People Amen.

MUSIC NOTES

The Celtic people were out of the reach of most political and religious systems and so maintained ancient practices deeply rooted in nature, the dignity and equality of men and women, and a vibrant pursuit for understanding human beings as well as God. As Christianity arrived to the Celts, they formed a beautiful synthesis of these ancient beliefs with the Christian understanding of God's message of Divine presence and belonging. Celtic spirituality sees the presence of the Spirit in all experiences and seeks an encounter with God in all of life and nature. Celtic music evolved with acoustic instruments (like dulcimer, fiddle, flutes, pipes, guitar, drums, etc.) using poetic verses and melodies. Traditional Celtic music traveled to the US with immigrants and formed the foundation of the folk and bluegrass music we enjoy today.

In addition to traditional hymns and Irish folk tunes, the music for today draws on the work of Northern Irish hymn writers Keith and Kristyn Getty and English worship songwriters Stuart Townend and Cathy Burton. In addition, a couple of original tunes written by Al Todd are included. Bloom of the Rose was written after a visit to the Rose Chapel in Edinburgh, Scotland and Deep Peace sets to music an ancient Celtic prayer. We hope you enjoy today's liturgy and music.
