During the 9:00 a.m. service when the Hymn before the Sermon begins, children ages three through second grade are welcome to follow the wooden cross out to attend Children's Chapel, with an age-appropriate lesson and music. They will return during announcements time.

We provide Sunday School for children ages 3-14 most Sundays from September through May. To sign up your child, email Emily DelSordo, Children's Formation Coordinator, at Emily@st-margarets.org. MUSIC AT ST. MARGARET'S

Here at St. Margaret's, we are blessed with a vibrant music ministry that has something for everyone, presently consisting of two adult choirs, a K-12 chorister program (grades K-2, 3-5, 6-12), and the contemporary music ensemble Third Sunday Band. If you would like to find out more about our music ministry and are interested in joining any of our ensembles, please email Jim Douglas, Director of Music, at music@st-margarets.org. Membership in our choirs and ensembles is open to all, regardless of religious affiliation or background. Please visit the music page on the website at <https://www.st-margarets.org/music.html>. The Music Ministry calendar may also be found on the website at <https://www.st-margarets.org/music-calendar.html>.

The liturgy and music for today is from The Book of Common Prayer, the 1982 Hymnal, and other resources as noted. Permission to print and live-stream music granted through OneLicense #A-709554 and CCLI #661345/#CSPL068962. The music this morning is led by members of the Third Sunday Band and Youth Group.

A note about today's service—

Because the Youth services tend to fall toward the end of the school year, they are an appropriate time to think about the previous year, and how this service relates to the things we have discussed and practiced. The service we are about to celebrate is the result of a year's worth of study, discussion, prayer and group decision-making – even if the students didn't realize it at the time!

Today's message is all about inclusion. You will hear it in the readings. You will sing about it in our worship music. And there may be a slight twist to the Homily. Inclusion is ALWAYS the message. As we emerge from all of the various pandemic restrictions, we are relearning the joys of inclusion. However, a mere glance at many of today's news headlines show us that the message of inclusion is easily drowned out by the language of exclusion. This Sunday as you worship with our youth, I invite you to reflect deeply on the idea of inclusion. When have you succeeded in the past in making inclusion a priority, and when have you found yourself not living up to Christ's message? This morning is an opportunity to rededicate ourselves to being the welcoming and inclusive community Christ commands us to be.

-Jeff Conover, Youth Ministries Leader

Music Notes—

We hope you enjoy the music for Youth Sunday. Some of these songs such as the opening hymn "You are Holy" and the Postlude, Bill Withers's iconic "Lean on Me", are staples at youth gatherings. I wrote the Prelude, "Angel by my side" about that feeling of having a guardian angel we need at times in life. "The Well" by Casting Crowns and "All who are thirsty" reflect on the Epistle reminding us where to return when searching in life. Zach Williams' "Less like Me" and the hymn before the Gospel, "Lord whose Love," remind us of our need to continue to model our lives on Jesus in today's Gospel from John. The song "Humble and Kind" was written by Lori McKenna as a song of advice to her teenage daughters. Seemed like a good choice here and advice we can all use! I was struck by the lyrics of the song "Come to the Table" the first time I heard it. Like the reading from Acts, it says that Communion and God's grace is shared with everyone, even this "motley crew of misfits, liars and thieves" that we can all too often identify with. The final hymn "Down at the Cross" is a gospel traditional and Band favorite. He is risen..."Glory to His name"!

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST LESSON

Acts 11:1-18

A reading from the Acts of the Disciples.

Now the apostles and the believers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also accepted the word of God. So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticized him, saying, "Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?" Then Peter began to explain it to them, step by step, saying, "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. There was something like a large sheet coming down from heaven, being lowered by its four corners; and it came close to me. As I looked at it closely I saw four-footed animals, beasts of prey, reptiles, and birds of the air. I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Get up, Peter; kill and eat.' But I replied, 'By no means, Lord; for nothing profane or unclean has ever entered my mouth.' But a second time the voice answered from heaven, 'What God has made clean, you must not call profane.' This happened three times; then everything was pulled up again to heaven. At that very moment three men, sent to me from Caesarea, arrived at the house where we were. The Spirit told me to go with them and not to make a distinction between them and us. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered the man's house. He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, 'Send to Joppa and bring Simon, who is called Peter; he will give you a message by which you and your entire household will be saved.' And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as it had upon us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said, 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' If then God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could hinder God?" When they heard this, they were silenced. And they praised God, saying, "Then God has given even to the Gentiles the repentance that leads to life."

People Thanks be to God.

SECOND LESSON

Revelation 21:1-6

A reading from the book of Revelation.

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life."

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The People stand as able and sing the Hymn.

Leader The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

At the last supper, when Judas had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Lori McKenna & Tim McGraw

You know there's a light that glows by the front door Don't forget the key's under the mat

When childhood stars shine Always stay humble and kind

Go to church 'cause your mamma says to Visit grandpa every chance that you can

It won't be wasted time Always stay humble and kind

Hold the door, say "please", say "thank you" Don't steal, don't cheat, and don't lie

When the dreams you're dreamin' come to you When the work you put in is realized

Let yourself feel the pride But always stay humble and kind

GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer B

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

A. Todd

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - - na in the high - - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Ho - san - - na in the high - - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

The Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory.

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with the Ever-blessed Virgin Mary, Margaret and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

People Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we pray together,

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant God of promise, you have prepared a banquet for us.

Come to the Table

Ben Glover (Sidewalk Prophets)

We all start on the outside The outside looking in
This is where grace begins We were hungry we were thirsty
With nothing left to give Oh the shape that we were in
Just when all hope seemed lost Love opened the door for us
(He said) come to the table Come join the sinners who have been redeemed
Take your place beside the Savior Sit down and be set free
Come meet this motley crew of misfits These liars and these thieves
There's no one unwelcome here So that sin and shame that you've brought with you
You can leave it at the door And let mercy draw you near
To the thief and to the doubter To the hero and the coward
To the pris'ner and the soldier To the young and to the older
All who hunger all who thirst All the last and all the first
All the paupers and the princes All who've failed you've been forgiven
All who dream and all who suffer All who've loved and lost another
All the chained and all the free All who follow all who lead
Anyone who's been let down All the lost you have been found
All who've been labeled right or wrong To ev'ryone who hears this song
Woah sit down and be set free Come to the table
Just sit down and rest awhile Come to the table

All Who are Thirsty

Brenton Brown

All who are thirsty All who are weak
Come to the fountain Dip your heart in the stream of life
Let the pain and the sorrow Be washed away
In the waves of His mercy As deep cries out to deep
Come Lord Jesus come Holy Spirit come
As deep cries out to deep
As deep cries out to deep we sing
