Neighborhoods Forum Today

Join us in the fellowship hall this morning at 10:30 a.m. to learn more about Neighborhoods, a new way to stay connected with St. Margaret's and your fellow Dragonslayers. While we draw parishioners from several zip codes, we are concentrated in the middle of Anne Arundel County. But you might not know that some of your neighbors attend a different service time. We hope that by knowing your neighbors, you will be able to take care of each other better by staying in touch throughout the year. Come by the fellowship hall to hear more!

MLK Youth Lock-in Coming Up Next Weekend

Sponsored by the Diocese of Maryland, this upcoming lock-in at the Cathedral of the Incarnation in Baltimore on Jan. 20-21 will provide our youth parishioners with an evening focused on the sin of racism, how to continue our work to dismantle it, a film about overcoming racism, and discussion time. There will also be time for fellowship and food. On Monday, we take time to create posters, work on a service project, and march in the MLK parade alongside Memorial, Bolton Hill 2019. Times are Sunday 6 p.m. through Monday at 3 p.m. Cost: Donations for the food pantry or warming bags. For more information, contact our Youth Ministries Leader Jeff Conover at jeff@st-margarets.org. And families should mark their calendars for a St. Margaret's youth lock-in on Feb. 16-17.

Annual Meeting on January 27

Our parish's annual meeting will be held on Sunday, Jan. 27. A potluck lunch will be held after the 11:15 a.m. service in the parish hall. The meeting will begin around 12:45 p.m. An annual report and 2019 budget will be digitally issued the week of the meeting and copies will be available that Sunday. Five vestry members will also be elected. For the potluck lunch, we ask those whose names begin with:

- A-G - Bring side dishes;
- H-P - Bring entrée dishes; and
- Q-Z - Bring desserts.

Help with set up and clean up is needed. Please plan on helping out that day.

St. Margaret's Film Festival on Jan. 24

The Alliance for the Chesapeake Bay is sponsoring a "Wild & Scenic Film Festival" fundraiser at St. Margaret's on Thursday, Jan. 24 from 6 to 9 p.m. The event brings together incredible selections of films that inform, inspire, and ignite solutions and possibilities to restore the earth and human communities while creating a positive future for the next generation. Festival-goers can expect to see award winning films about nature, community activism, adventure, conservation, water, energy and climate change, wildlife, environmental justice, agriculture, Native American and indigenous cultures. To purchase a ticket, go to www.allianceforthebay.org.

Winter Coffeehouse on Feb. 9

Our own Third Sunday Band will hold its annual winter coffeehouse at St. Margaret's on Sunday, Feb. 9 in the Parish Hall. Doors open at 6:30 and music begins at 7 p.m. Copies of the band's new CD Peace will be on sale for purchase. Goodies are always appreciated for refreshments.

The Missions Commission's holiday gift card drive brought in $650 in gift cards for the homeless. Most will be given to the county's homeless coordinators to distribute but additional cards will be used for our Winter Relief guests. Thanks to all who contributed!

Going to miss a Sunday service at St. Margaret's?

Though nothing replaces the feeling of attending a live service at St. Margaret's, we are now offering a livestream of Sunday service on our Facebook public page (www.facebook.com/smcannapolis). You can also find the entire service on our website the next day. Look for the Sunday Service green button at www.st-margarets.org.

Needed: Grant Liaisons

This is the time of year the grants committee begins reviewing the applications for the 2019 Endowment Grants Program. Parishioners who would like a very short but very meaningful opportunity to assist the committee by being a liaison (a contact) with one of the finalist applicants can email Izzy Winn immediately at ewinn421@gmail.com. A 45-minute required training session will be given to those who have signed up on Sunday, Feb. 3 at 10:20 a.m. between services. Izzy will be confirming with everyone who previously signed up at the missions fair in October.

Tanzania Trip Now Full!

We now have a full group for the upcoming trip to Tanzania in March. Participants will meet with the tour director on Sunday, Feb. 3, at 10:15 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Passports and other paperwork will be collected at that time. If you wish to be put on the waiting list, contact Teri Priebe at 540-760-8178.
