Lenten Book Study Begins This Morning

Join the Rev. Peter W. Mayer this morning during coffeehour (10:20 a.m.) in the Fellowship Hall as we begin a study on the book Hanging by a Thread by Samuel Wells. And look for follow up videos online (our website & Facebook group) each week. Discussions will include the challenges of our understanding of Christ's crucifixion that arise today using contemporary ideas in history, biblical studies, and philosophy.

Silent Movie Concert on March 10th

Noted organist Michael Britt will be our guest this afternoon for our annual silent movie concert at 4 p.m. This year's film is the hilarious Buster Keaton "Sherlock, Jr." A family-favorite event, get here early for a good seat and be entertained by "one of Buster Keaton's funniest and most technically innovative features."

Winter Relief Only Two Weeks Away - Volunteer Today!

Our guests will arrive March 25th and stay for a week. We still need chaperones, overnights, laundry volunteers, van drivers and shower monitors. Opportunities are also wide open for the weekend. You can register at the training session today during coffeehour in the parish hall or online through the church website.

Compline by Candlelight

Starting this Wednesday, we will be holding a candlelight compline service every Wednesday evening at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary. As you journey through Lent, this will be an opportunity for prayers, quiet time, readings, and chanting to center our lives during this contemplative season.

My Brother's Pantry Volunteers Needed

My Brother's Pantry provides a monthly food supplement to more than 100 local families who could use a little extra help. Volunteers from various churches on the Broadneck peninsula take turns every month with one evening of packing grocery bags and then one morning of delivering grocery bags to families needing assistance in our community. March is the designated month for St. Margaret's Church. We need some volunteers for:

1. Packing - 6:30 pm this Thursday March 14, at the Pantry located on the grounds of College Parkway Baptist Church. (~1.5 hours)

We'll set up a joyful little assembly line to pack the bags for our big monthly distribution.

2. Delivery - 8:45 am this Saturday March 16, meeting at the Pantry (~2 hours)

We'll send a big group of volunteers loaded with packed bags of groceries to our families at College Parkway Place, while a smaller group stays at the Pantry to help our other families who come to pick up their food.

If those two chances aren't enough for you, there are smaller opportunities available all month long: responding to emergency requests on the hotline, checking inventory, collecting the food at our donation bins, helping with the big food runs from Graul's Market and the Anne Arundel County Food Bank. Or if you're interested, you can even serve all year long as St Margaret's representative (or alternate) on My Brother's Pantry's Board of Directors. For more information and to volunteer, contact parishioner Russell Jackson at russell140.6@gmail.com.

Diaper Drive for AIJN Next Week - March 17-24

Our Missions Commission will conduct a Diaper Drive for immigrant families on behalf of AIJN - Annapolis Immigration Justice Network. AIJN assists local undocumented immigrants and their families. Parishioners are invited to participate by donating diapers [sizes 3, 4, 5] and/or baby wipes. Donations can be left in the narthex all week. For questions, email joannatillman@gmail.com.

Going to miss a Sunday service at St. Margaret's?

Though nothing replaces the feeling of attending a live service at St. Margaret's, we are now offering a livestream of Sunday service on our Facebook public page (www.facebook.com/smcannapolis). You can also find the entire service on our website the next day. Look for the Sunday Service green button at www.st-margarets.org.
